President's Message

Greetings UMWC members. After a summer of unrelenting heat and alternating periods of monsoon and drought, let's look forward to the cooler and more comfortable days of autumn. I hope you are energized for a year of exciting Conversations with a Woman Leader and a vast array of interest section programs from Antiques to Women's Health Issues. Our section leaders have worked diligently to plan some intriguing programs.

I am joined on the Board by the following new officers and committee chairs: vice presidents for programs, Mary Abuan and Kathi Treston; secretary, Barbara Cohen; treasurer, Catherine Bell; corresponding secretary, Marian Champlin; and membership chair, Marlene Hernick. They join officers continuing in their second or succeeding years: vice president for programs, Susie Stinson; treasurer for records and dues, Shirley Ferraro; historian, Jane Starr; and scholarship chair, Martha Arneson. I offer a sincere thank you to each of them for agreeing to serve in these important roles. My gratitude goes to Ingrid Lund and Anne Wise for their skill in securing our conversation speakers for this year. Special thanks to Dorothy Waltz and Barbara Cohen for the many hours that went into the production of the Directory and to Martha Arneson and her hard-working committee in selecting this year's scholarship recipients.

Kudos and gratitude go to Cherie Hamilton, our past-president, for her unwavering service to the UMWC. Her energy, ideas, and leadership have been an inspiration to us all.

At our Scholarship Luncheon on October 2 we will meet many of the student recipients and hear their stories. Martha Arneson, committee chair, reports that from a pool of 68 applicants, the committee has selected 28 women to receive a UMWC scholarship of $2,500. Of the 28 winners, 8 are seniors, 13 are juniors, and seven are sophomores at the U of M Twin Cities campus. Five of the students are repeat scholarship winners.

Please join me in celebrating the accomplishments of these young ladies at the luncheon, which will be held at the Holiday Inn Metrodome Hotel. The reservation form is located in the back of your club directory. Send your check and reservation to either Mary Abuan or Kathi Treston by the reservation deadline, Monday, Sept. 17.

With warm regards,
Kathy Ball, President
